Dear Sister Prather:

I would like to take this opportunity to commend your courageous decision to become a Christian during our recent gospel meeting at Hickory Flat. I know that your action was prompted by a sincere desire to be pleasing before God.

I would like to suggest some activities that will be major factors in your spiritual growth. First, you should find time in every day to read your Bible, 2 Tim. 2:15; second, you have the wonderful privileged of prayer as a Christian. Paul commands us to pray daily, 1 Thess 5:17; Third, you should make every effort possible to attend all the services of the Church Heb. 10:25. These three suggestions may appear small but when exercised in your life they will become the foundation of all your activities.

Enclosed is a baptismal certificate which offers you a record of when and where you were baptized. Please give my regards to your family and to all the good people in Hickory Flat.

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk
